PRINCIPALS REPORT

Dear Parents and Community members,

Once again I would like to congratulate our students. The parents of the students at Wallendbeen Public School should feel very proud of their consistent excellence in many areas.

Last Tuesday we had an exclusive at the Red Cross Zone meeting with the students singing and performing for the first time with xylophones and they were brilliant. The very next day they performed for the director of Young School Of Music Mr Cronin, so he could see first hand the wonderful job his staff member Mrs Edwards and our Mrs West have been doing with the school choir.

Currently we are building our Cross Country team in preparation for the District PSSA cross country competition in Murrumburrah on Friday the 2nd of June. This is for Years 3 and up however the infants room are training just as hard. All students have improved in their running and we should have a good representation at Murrumburrah. Keep running boys and girls.

I would like to point out the another area of high performance in the art of writing poetry. You will see an example of great poetry in this newsletter with more to follow in the next few weeks.

Have a great fortnight.

Mrs T Daly, Principal

Stage 2 Poetry

The Fog.....

I crept out of bed
And went to the window.....
Slowly I grasped the handle
And it finally pulled open.
First she came in wisps....
And then I started to see her properly.
She had long flowing hair, a pale face
And she had one of those old time nightdresses,
She floated at the end of my bed and beckoned to me with a finger.
I crawled in to bed.
She told me stories of things we don't' get to see at night,
Because we're all tucked in bed.
She told me of fireflies and glow worms working together
To make the most magnificent light shows.
She told of wolves stalking their prey.
I must have fallen asleep at some point because when I woke
She slowly waved goodbye as she disappeared into the sun's first, harsh rays.

Cooking from the Garden

Last week we made homemade chicken and pork sausage rolls. We used garlic, carrots, parsley, Shallots and tomatoes from our garden! This week was Spaghetti Bolognaise with fresh produce from our garden.
